Sir,

I am a resident of Kolluru village in Kudligi Taluk and have been detained since October under the Defence of India Rules.

My father is an old man and is complaining of eye trouble. He requires urgent medical treatment and if necessary he has to be taken to a place where proper medical treatment is available and operated upon. This matter cannot be delayed any longer.

I have got a few acres of land and my divided brother is trying to waste it and alienate it. He has already sold a portion of my farm without my consent. She is trying to ruin me due to my absence. If she continues to do so I will be put to a very great loss. So please kindly permit me and keep my property in trust & leave to make some arrangement. I require atleast a month to set right the above domestic matters.

So long as I am allowed to be on parole I undertake not to take part in any political or anti-government activity.

I request you to release me on parole for a month and pass favourable orders as early as possible.

Sir,

My younger brother, B. Jhimmappa, is a native of this place Kotturu, in Kudligi Taluq, Bellary district and he is being detained in the Central Jail, Vellore, since October last under the Defence of India Rules

The said younger brother's wife has given birth to a son two months ago. But that newly born child died a fortnight ago and the bereaved mother of that child is always mourning the loss of her child. This premature death of the baby has greatly affected my brother's wife's health and her health is deteriorating day by day. She is very much worried mentally and we are at a loss to console her. So her husband's presence is greatly needed in such a state. It is of prime importance that my younger brother must be by the side of his wife to console her and bring her back to her former health.

So I request you to release him on parole for one month and thus enable him to be by the side of his bereaved wife to console her.

I earnestly hope that you would kindly pass orders immediately and intimate the same to me.
